AIA East Bay Home Tours August 2012

Call For Entries

AIA East Bay announces the return of its popular Home Tours on one of the first three Saturdays in August 2012 (date contingent on Oakland Art & Soul Festival). This self-guided tour celebrates design excellence, inspiring and educating the public about the impact of architecture on East Bay living.

We invite AIA Architects to submit residential projects by February 29, 2012 for consideration.

Criteria

Members of the AIA are encouraged to enter residential projects; preference is given to those by chapter member architects in good standing. Selection will be made by the Home Tours Committee based on the project's quality of design, relevance to East Bay living, ability to showcase the importance of architects and architecture in Bay Area living, and appropriate inclusion in the overall program.

All architects submitting a project will receive one complimentary ticket for the 2012 Home Tours. Submissions not chosen for this tour will become candidates for future tours or special presentations by the Chapter.

Requirements

- Firms MUST obtain approval by the project's homeowner(s) prior to submitting it for consideration. The 2011 AIA East Bay Homes Tour had 650 tour participants. All homes will be insured and trained docents will be placed in each home on the tour.
- Design teams are to be on hand throughout the day of the tour to answer questions.
- The design team and/or firm principal must be available to train House Captains in advance of the tour.
- Photos submitted must be appropriate for publishing; AIA East Bay, Diablo Magazine, and local newspapers such as the SF Chronicle must be granted free rights to use any photos submitted.

Eligibility

- Projects must have been designed/renovated/restored by an AIA architect since 2000.
- Homes in Alameda, Oakland, Piedmont, Berkeley, Albany, Lafayette, Orinda and Walnut Creek will be given preference. Homes within the chapter region but not in the above areas will be considered for this and future Home Tours.
